ST. BONAVENTURE (4-2) VS. SIENA (2-6)

Opening Tip

St. Bonaventure welcomes Franiscan Cup rival Siena to the Reilly Center for a nationally-televised game on NBC Sports Network. The Bonnies have won four straight games against the Saints dating back to the 2000-01 season.

Last Time Out

A Matthew Wright steal and lay-up with 24 seconds remaining provided the winning points as the St. Bonaventure men's basketball team rallied in the final minutes for an 82-79 victory over the University at Buffalo (2-7) Saturday night at the Reilly Center. Demitrius Conger had another steal for the Bonnies with seven seconds left to thwart the Bulls' attempt to regain the lead, and the senior hit two free throws to provide the final margin. Conger finished with a season-high 20 points and Wright added 11 for Bonaventure, which played in its fifth straight game decided by five points or less. Senior Chris Johnson reached double-figure scoring for the fifth straight game with 14 points, and junior Charlon Kloofrounded out the fourth consecutive contest SBU has placed at least four players in double figures with his 10-point effort.

Scouting Siena

The Saints visit the Reilly Center aiming to snap a four-game losing streak. Included in that string of defeats was a last-second 64-63 loss to Massachusetts on Nov. 28. Siena's victories have come at Navy and against Northern Kentucky. The Saints are led by forward O.D. Anosike, who comes in averaging 13.6 points and 13.3 rebounds per game. Sophomore guard Evan Hymes leads Siena in scoring at 14.1 points per game. Rob Poole (12.3) and Rakeem Brookins (11.7) also average double figures for the Saints, though Brookins has only played three games because of an injury.

Close Encounters

The Bonnies' three-point margin of victory over Buffalo marks the first time in program history that a team has started the season by having five of its first six games decided by five points or less. It's also just the third time in the 93-year history of SBU basketball that a team has had five consecutive games at any point of the year decided by five points or less.

Bounce Back Bonnies

With its victory over Buffalo, St. Bonaventure improved to 11-1 in its non-conference slate over the last two-plus years in games following losses. The only two-game losing streak during that timeframe came against Virginia Tech (73-64) and Arkansas State (58-52) last year.

Johnson Hot To Start

During the offseason, head coach Mark Schmidt called Chris Johnson the one player who would surprise opponents this year. So far, that's exactly what the senior has done as he's tied his career high for scoring three times, netting 19 points in consecutive games against Cornell, Canisius and Niagara. Through six games, he's already scored 97 points – a plateau he didn't reach until the 17th contest last year. Additionally, the Nova Scotia native has already tied, or broken, a career high in eight other categories (rebounds: 6; assists: 4, steals: 3; field goals made: 8; 3-point field goals made: 3; 3-point field goals attempted: 6; field goals attempted: 17; minutes played: 35).

Good Things Come In Pairs

Conger (18 points, 10 rebounds) and Marquise Simmons (12 points, 12 rebounds) each registered a double-double in the Bonnies' victory over Niagara. The last time two St. Bonaventure players recorded double-doubles in the same game was Feb. 29, 2012, when Conger tallied 16 points and 10 rebounds and Andrew Nicholson produced 32 points and 14 rebounds in a 98-93 double-overtime victory opposite Saint Joseph's. The last time two Bona players recorded double-doubles in the same regulation game was Feb. 25, 2012, when Conger had 12 points and 11 rebounds and Nicholson posted 25 points and 11 boards in a 72-56 victory over Charlotte.

Upcoming Milestones

Conger and Michael Davenport are both in position to reach 1,000 career points this season. Conger stands 120 points short of the milestone and will need to average a minimum of 5.2 points over SBU's remaining 23 regular-season games to reach 1,000. Davenport is 243 points short and will need to average a minimum of 10.6 points per game over the season to hit 1,000. The last time Bonnies' teammates reached 1,000 career points in the same season was in 2002-03, when junior Marques Green and senior Patricio Prato hit the milestone in back-to-back games against Duquesne (Jan. 25, 2003) and Cleveland State (Jan. 28, 2003), respectively. Additionally, Conger stands 23 rebounds shy of 500 for his career and is position to become the 23rd player in program history to record 1,000 points and 500 rebounds. The last to do it was 2012 graduate Andrew Nicholson.

HEAD COACH MARK SCHMIDT

MARK SCHMIDT RADIO SHOW

Fans are invited to upcoming live broadcasts of the Mark Schmidt Radio Show at Randy's Up The River in Allegany on Dec. 6 and Dec. 13
Hosted by the Voice of the Bonnies, Gary Nease, the show runs from 7:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and can be heard on 95.7 WPIG.

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program has reached new heights under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt.

Schmidt's blue collar efforts to revive the tradition-rich program resulted in an unprecedented season in 2011-12, as the Bonnies' won their first ever Atlantic 10 championship and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under Schmidt's guidance, St. Bonaventure has become a consistent winner in the Atlantic 10. The team has improved its conference win total in each of the past five seasons, culminating in the magical 2011-12 campaign. The Bonnies went 20-12 (10-6 Atlantic 10) and captured victories over Saint Joseph's, Massachusetts and Xavier to win the Atlantic 10 Championship crown and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history.

SBU's 20 victories overall and 10 in the Atlantic 10 were its most since the 1999-2000 season, the last time a Bonnies team had earned an NCAA Tournament bid. The 10 victories also marked just the fourth time in history a Bonaventure team reached double-digit conference triumphs.

Schmidt was recognized for his remarkable work in rebuilding the Bonnies by being named the 2012 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year. He was also named the Basketball Coaches Association of New York Men's Division I Coach of the Year.

Schmidt was instrumental in the development of 2012 A-10 Player of the Year and AP Honorable Mention All-American Andrew Nicholson, who ended his career ranked second in school history in scoring (2,103 points) and fourth in rebounds (887). Nicholson was selected by the Orlando Magic in the first round of the 2012 NBA Draft.

In May 2012, St. Bonaventure rewarded Schmidt with a five-year contract extension that runs through the 2018-19 season.

Schmidt took over the tradition-rich program on April 10, 2007, becoming the 19th head coach in school history.

In just six short years, Schmidt and the Bonnies have re-energized the Bona faithful and basketball-passionate Western New York community.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Schmidt oversaw a Bonnies squad that posted the school's first winning season (16-15) and postseason berth (CBI) since 2001-02. The Bonnies - picked for second to last in the preseason poll - exceeded expectations and finished tied for seventh in the league standings and earned a home A-10 Championship game for the second straight season.

During his third season in 2009-10, Schmidt guided the Bonnies to their second straight season with 15 wins. St. Bonaventure gained its second consecutive berth in the Atlantic 10 Championship, where the Bonnies defeated Duquesne for the program's first postseason win since 2002.

In 2008-09, St. Bonaventure finished with a 15-15 overall record – the program's best mark in the last six years. Included in that season was a program record seven consecutive road wins to start the season and the program's first trip to the Atlantic 10 Tournament since 2005. The team's seven true road wins also tied the record set by the 2001-02 club.

Key to the quick turnaround in 2008-09 was the team's ability to buy into Schmidt's emphasis on playing hard for 40 minutes. That philosophy paid big dividends, as the Bonnies out-rebounded 22 of their 30 opponents en route to ranking in the top five in the conference in all three major rebounding statistics.

Schmidt's intense personality rubbed off on everyone involved with the program in his first season, as St. Bonaventure was much more competitive in the ultra-talented A-10 Conference. Disguised in the team's 8-22 record were 10 losses by 10 points or less, including four by five points or less.

The series will follow every aspect of the 2012-13 men's basketball team as it looks to repeat as Atlantic 10 Champions in Brooklyn this coming March.

Produced and filmed by Bonaventure senior Josh Carniewski with editorial assistance from Sports Information Director Jason MacBain, "All-Access: St. Bonaventure Men's Basketball" is a three-episode video series. Episode 1 – broken into two parts on YouTube – is now available, with episodes 2 and 3 to come following the conclusion of the non-conference schedule and regular season, respectively.

Episode 1 places a heavy emphasis on the team and individual players off-season development following SBU's first A-10 Championship last year.
