ST. BONAVENTURE VS. BETHUNE-COOKMAN

Banner Season Honored

St. Bonaventure's unprecedented 2011-12 season will be celebrated during a ceremony prior to tip-off tonight, when banners honoring the team's Atlantic 10 Conference Championship and NCAA Tournament berth from last season will be unveiled to the public for the first time.

Opening Tip

Tonight's game marks the first-ever meeting between St. Bonaventure and Bethune-Cookman. Based in Daytona Beach, Fla., the Wildcats play in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference.

SBU In Season/Home Openers

The Bonnies are 74-17 all time in season-opening games, 79-12 in home openers and 43-2 in home openers at the Reilly Center. Under head coach Mark Schmidt, St. Bonaventure is 3-2 in season openers and 5-0 in home openers.

Bonnies Cruise In Exhibition

St. Bonaventure raced out to a 19-4 lead not even seven minutes in, led by as many as 45 and received a game-high 25 points from senior Demitrius Conger to cruise to a 104-61 victory over Mansfield in an exhibition tilt this past Saturday. The well-balanced SBU offensive attack received 14 points from sophomore center Youssou Ndoye, 11 from guard Eric Mosley and 10 each from Charlon Kloof and Michael Davenport as SBU scored 100 in a regulation 40 minutes for the first time since Dec. 31, 2002 against Ohio.

Scouting Bethune-Cookman

Coming off a fourth straight winning season, Bethune-Cookman is projected to finish sixth in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference. The Wildcats finished 18-17 last season and earned a berth in the MEAC Tournament championship game, where they lost to Norfolk State. Senior point guard Kevin Dukes returns as the team's leading scorer. The 2nd team preseason All-MEAC selection averaged 11.7 points per game and also led the Wildcats in 3-pointers made, assists and minutes played last season. Bethune-Cookman also returns forward Adrian Coleman, who averaged 11.5 ppg last year. The junior also led the team with 48 steals.

2011-12 In Brief

St. Bonaventure won its first Atlantic 10 Championship in 2012 and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2000 where it narrowly lost to 3rd-seeded ACC Champion Florida State in the Second Round, 66-63.

What's Gone & What's Back

The Bonnies will look to replace 2012 A-10 Player of the Year, Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American and First Round NBA Draft pick Andrew Nicholson, who led St. Bonaventure in scoring (18.5) and rebounding (8.4). SBU also lost Da'Quan Cook (7.6 points / 4.6 rebounds) to graduation. While Nicholson has moved on to the Orlando Magic, Cook has taken his game oversees where he signed a professional contract with BC Yambol in Bulgaria's National Basketball League.

Bona returns 10 letterwinners and three starters, including 2012 A-10 All-Championship Team member Demitrius Conger, who averaged 12.1 points and 6.2 rebounds – both second on the team to Nicholson. Conger has been named to the 2012-13 Preseason All-Big Four First Team. Bonaventure had 10 players average at least 10 minutes per game in 2011-12, tied for the most by any team in the A-10. Mark Schmidt was named the Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, and also claimed the Basketball Coaches Association of New York Men's Division I Coach of the Year.

Five-Year Resurgence

By going 10-6 and finishing tied for 3rd in the A-10 in 2012, St. Bonaventure increased its conference win total and bettered its league finish for the fifth straight year since head coach Mark Schmidt took over the Bonnies in 2007-08. Additionally, St. Bonaventure is one of only seven Division I schools in the nation to have improved its RPI in each of the last five seasons. Charleston Southern, Detroit, Long Beach State, South Dakota State, Tennessee Tech and Wichita State are the other six schools which have improved their RPI each of the last five years. Of the seven teams, SBU is the only one to hail from a conference that has been rated among the top-10 in the country in RPI in each of the last five years.

Non-Conference Docket

St. Bonaventure's non-conference schedule features contests against six teams which went to postseason tournaments last year, including four versus NCAA Tournament squads. The Bonnies will play 13 non-league contests in total – six at home, six on the road and one at a neutral site. Six of the 13 teams won 20 or more games last year, and two advanced to the Sweet 16. Bonaventure will conclude its non-conference docket with three straight games against NCAA Tournament teams.

Upcoming Milestones

Demitrius Conger and Michael Davenport are both in position to reach 1,000 career points this season. Conger stands 208 points short of the milestone and will need to average a minimum of 7.2 points over SBU's 29 regular season games to reach 1,000. Davenport is 253 points short and will need to average a minimum of 8.7 points per game over the season to hit 1,000. The last time Bonnies' teammates reached 1,000 career points in the same season was in 2002-03, when junior Marques Green and senior Patricio Prato hit the milestone in back-to-back games against Duquesne (Jan. 25, 2003) and Cleveland State (Jan. 28, 2003), respectively.

Athletic Department Unveils 2012-13 Slogan

St. Bonaventure Athletic Department officials unveiled the winning slogan for the 2012-13 basketball seasons on Tuesday: “No Sleep ’Til Brooklyn.”

The winner of the contest is Patrick Didas, father of SBU freshman Cody Didas, whose suggestion was chosen from a list of more than 80 nominations.

The “No Sleep ’Til Brooklyn” slogan is derived from the 1986 hit single by the Beastie Boys. It encapsulates the tireless effort needed to be put forth by the men’s and women’s basketball teams and their fans to reach the 2013 Atlantic 10 Championship at the brand new, $1 billion Barclays Center in Brooklyn.

Didas’ slogan will be used across multiple mediums, including print ads, TV commercials and radio spots – among others – throughout the season.

The top 12 teams in the newly-formed 16-team A-10 on the men’s side advance to the A-10 Championship, which will be held entirely at the Barclays Center. The first three rounds of the women’s tournament will be held at Saint Joseph’s University before the championship game is played at Barclays. It will be the first women’s basketball game played in the state-of-the-art arena.

This marks the second year in a row that fans have had the opportunity to select the basketball slogan. Last season’s extremely popular “Defining Our Legacy” slogan came to fruition as the men’s team won its first A-10 Championship title and the women’s squad went undefeated in the A-10 and advanced to the Sweet 16.

Fans were encouraged to submit their suggestions via email or through St. Bonaventure’s social media platforms (Twitter: @Go_Bonnies and Facebook: GoBonnies), and department officials thank all fans for their creative ideas.

HEAD COACH MARK SCHMIDT

MARK SCHMIDT RADIO SHOW

Another exciting season of the Mark Schmidt Radio Show kicked off Thursday at Randy's Up the River in Allegany. Hosted by the Voice of the Bonnies, Gary Nease, the show can be heard on the flagship station of Bona basketball, 95.7 WPIG. A complete show schedule for this season will be unveiled soon on GoBonnies.com

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program has reached new heights under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt.

Schmidt's blue collar efforts to revive the tradition-rich program resulted in an unprecedented season in 2011-12, as the Bonnies' won their first ever Atlantic 10 championship and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under Schmidt's guidance, St. Bonaventure has become a consistent winner in the Atlantic 10. The team has improved its conference win total in each of the past five seasons, culminating in the magical 2011-12 campaign. The Bonnies went 20-12 (10-6 Atlantic 10) and captured victories over Saint Joseph's, Massachusetts and Xavier to win the Atlantic 10 Championship crown and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history.

SBU's 20 victories overall and 10 in the Atlantic 10 were its most since the 1999-2000 season, the last time a Bonnies team had earned an NCAA Tournament bid. The 10 victories also marked just the fourth time in history a Bonaventure team reached double-digit conference triumphs.

Schmidt was recognized for his remarkable work in rebuilding the Bonnies by being named the 2012 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year. He was also named the Basketball Coaches Association of New York Men's Division I Coach of the Year.

Schmidt was instrumental in the development of 2012 A-10 Player of the Year and AP Honorable Mention All-American Andrew Nicholson, who ended his career ranked second in school history in scoring (2,103 points) and fourth in rebounds (887). Nicholson was selected by the Orlando Magic in the first round of the 2012 NBA Draft.

In May 2012, St. Bonaventure rewarded Schmidt with a five-year contract extension that runs through the 2018-19 season.

Schmidt took over the tradition-rich program on April 10, 2007, becoming the 19th head coach in school history.

In just six short years, Schmidt and the Bonnies have re-energized the Bona faithful and basketball-passionate Western New York community.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Schmidt oversaw a Bonnies squad that posted the school's first winning season (16-15) and postseason berth (CBI) since 2001-02. The Bonnies - picked for second to last in the preseason poll - exceeded expectations and finished tied for seventh in the league standings and earned a home A-10 Championship game for the second straight season.

During his third season in 2009-10, Schmidt guided the Bonnies to their second straight season with 15 wins. St. Bonaventure gained its second consecutive berth in the Atlantic 10 Championship, where the Bonnies defeated Duquesne for the program's first postseason win since 2002.

In 2008-09, St. Bonaventure finished with a 15-15 overall record – the program's best mark in the last six years. Included in that season was a program record seven consecutive road wins to start the season and the program's first trip to the Atlantic 10 Tournament since 2005. The team's seven true road wins also tied the record set by the 2001-02 club.

Key to the quick turnaround in 2008-09 was the team's ability to buy into Schmidt's emphasis on playing hard for 40 minutes. That philosophy paid big dividends, as the Bonnies out-rebounded 22 of their 30 opponents en route to ranking in the top five in the conference in all three major rebounding statistics.

Schmidt's intense personality rubbed off on everyone involved with the program in his first season, as St. Bonaventure was much more competitive in the ultra-talented A-10 Conference. Disguised in the team's 8-22 record were 10 losses by 10 points or less, including four by five points or less.

A-10 Declared "Realignment Winners"

The Atlantic 10 made a big splash in the conference realignment craze in 2011-12, adding Butler and VCU to bring the league's total number to 16. The moves led prominent media members, like Andy Katz of ESPN.com to declare the A-10 the "Winners of Conference Realignment."

Both programs made the jump to the A-10 immediately, thereby fortifying the league's position as the best basketball-driven conference in Division I. The only non big six conference to have 41 at-large NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament selections in the past 20 years, including three in 2012, the A-10 has boasted 62 postseason appearances in the last decade. For the fifth year in a row, the Atlantic 10 Conference earned at least three bids and multiple at-large bids into the NCAA Tournament. Over the last six years, the Atlantic 10 has had 12 at-large selections - the seventh most among all other Division I conferences. A record eight A-10 institutions received invitations to the 2012 NCAA and NIT postseason tournaments, more than all but two conferences.

The Butler announcement came on May 2. An NCAA Final Four participant in two of the last three years, Butler is the seventh A-10 program with at least one appearance in the Final Four. The Bulldogs have been to the NCAA Tournament in five of the past six years and have advanced past the first weekend in three of those years. In all, Butler has 11 trips to the NCAA Tournament, and in five of those the Bulldogs have advanced to the Sweet 16 or beyond. Eight of those 11 trips have come since 2000. The Bulldogs have seven straight 20-win seasons and have had a winning season in 18 of the last 19 years.

VCU went to the Final Four in 2011. Along with the recent addition of Butler University, it brings the total A-10 programs with at least one appearance in the Final Four to eight. VCU has made 11 total trips to the NCAA Tournament with four of those coming in the last six years. In seven of those 11 trips, the Rams have won at least one game, including their run to the 2011 Final Four. VCU has had eight postseason appearances since 2000.

In addition, the moves solidify the A-10 standing in prime media markets, strengthening the league's hold on the Richmond market and adding the Indianapolis market. In all, the A-10 is in seven of the top 25 media markets, including four of the top 10. All 16 conference members are in the top 65 media markets in the country. The Atlantic 10 media footprint reaches over 23 million households.

RPI and Rankings

The Atlantic 10 Confernece ranked seventh among all conference in the final RPI in 2011-12. The league boasted eight Top 100 teams, third among all leagues behind only the Big East and the Big 10. The eight teams equaled the SEC and was more than the ACC, the Big 12, the PAC-12 and the Mountain West.
In addition, the league had Temple, and St. Bonaventure receiving poll votes at the end of the year. Temple, which was ranked at 21 in the AP Poll and 24th in the Coaches' Poll in the final week of the regular season, finished in the recieving votes category. St. Bonaventure joined that category after its A-10 title run. Xavier was ranked as high as eighth and Saint Louis cracked the top 25 early in 2011-12. Saint Louis, Dayton and Saint Joseph's all received votes early in the season as well. Newcomer VCU was also among those teams receiving votes in both polls last season.
