ST. BONAVENTURE (6-3) VS. THE CITADEL (3-5)

Opening Tip

St. Bonaventure welcomes Southern Conference member Citadel to the Reilly Center for a non-conference match-up. Tonight's meeting marks the first ever between the schools. The Citadel, also known as The Military College of South Carolina, is a public institution located in Charleston, S.C.

Last Time Out

St. Bonaventure scored a season-high 87 points, shot a season-best 54 percent from the floor and led by double figures for nearly 30 minutes on Saturday in a 87-53 victory over Cleveland State at the Reilly Center. Senior Demitrius Conger recorded his second double-double of the season with a team-leading 15 points and 11 rebounds to pace a well-balanced SBU offensive attack. Eleven of the 12 Bona players who logged game action scored, and the 34-point win came with leading scorer Chris Johnson tallying a season-low two points. Junior Charlon Kloof netted a season-high 14 points, sophomore center Youssou Ndoye tallied a career-establishing 13 points and senior Eric Mosley pitched in with 10 to complete a quartet of SBU double-figure scorers for the fifth time this year.

Scouting The Citadel

The Bulldogs visit the Reilly Center aiming to snap a four-game losing streak. The latest loss was a 71-58 setback at Gardner-Webb on Saturday. Two of The Citadel's three wins this season have come against NAIA programs, Montreat and Union (Ky.). Its other victory came at home against VMI. Senior center Mike Groselle leads the team at 16.1 points and 8.6 rebounds per game. The 1,000-point career scorer has posted two double-doubles this season and is shooting 57.6 percent from the field. Freshman wing Matt Van Scyoc averages 10.5 points per game and is Citadel's top 3-point threat at 43.6 percent (17-39). Sophomore guard Marshall Harris III ranks 33rd nationally with 5.75 assists per game. The Citadel roster also features Stephen Elmore, the son of former NBA player and current college basketball analyst Len Elmore. The Bulldogs are coached by Chuck Driesell, the son of National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame coach Lefty Driesell.

Fresh Performance

Freshman Dion Wright came off the bench to play 12 minutes and efficiently produced a season-best nine points, including a 3-pointer against Cleveland State. The California native also connected on the first two free throws of his young career in the victory.

All Hands On Board

Against Cleveland State, everyone on the Bona roster played in a game for this first time this season, including freshman Jean Yves Toupane and walk-on Danny Farrell. Toupane played five minutes and scored his first collegiate points on a lay-up, while Farrell played two minutes and missed his only 3-point attempt.

Kloof Starts Fast

The Bonnies led by as many as 25 points in the first half against Cleveland State, and Kloof served as the catalyst, setting his season high in points (12) not even 12 minutes into the game. Nine of those 12 points came from beyond the arc as the junior tied a career high and set a season-best mark by knocking down three 3-pointers.

Conger Closing In

Conger is closing in on 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 200 assists for his career. The senior enters the game against The Citadel with 925 points, 508 rebounds and 186 assists. The only other St. Bonaventure players to reach 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 200 assists are Ahmad Smith, who registered 1,261 points, 536 rebounds and 245 assists from 2002-2006, and David Vanterpool, who posted 1,474 points, 630 rebounds and 401 assists from 1991-95.

Bounce Back Bonnies

With the victory over Cleveland State, SBU improved to 12-1 since the start of the 2010-11 season in its non-conference slate in games following losses. The only two-game losing streak during that timeframe came against Virginia Tech (73-64) and Arkansas State (58-52) last year.

Home Sweet Home

Throughout much of its history, the Reilly Center has been feared by many opponents as one of the most difficult places to play in the country, so much so that in 2003 it prompted ESPN's Jay Bilas to label it as one of his top-5 "Hostile Homes" in the nation. While that may not have been in the case throughout much of the last decade, the RC is gradually becoming the feared venue it once was. The Bonnies have won 14 of their last 15 regular-season home games, and 20 of 22 dating back to the 2010-11 campaign.

Global Presence

In the first five games of the year, SBU's starting lineup consisted of four players from countries other than the United States: Charlon Kloof (Suriname, South America), Chris Johnson (Canada), Youssou Ndoye (Senegal, Africa) and Matthew Wright (Canada). Bonaventure is one of only three Division I schools in the nation which has started four foreign players in a game this year, with the others being Gonzaga and Maine. Additionally, 48 percent of the Bonnies' scoring so far this season (310 of 645 points) has come from those four international players.

Too Close For Comfort

St. Bonaventure's three losses this season have come by a combined 10 points, and each of the losses have come by four points or less. In all, six of the Bonnies' first nine games have been decided by five points or less.

HEAD COACH MARK SCHMIDT

MARK SCHMIDT RADIO SHOW

Fans are invited to an upcoming live broadcast of the Mark Schmidt Radio Show on Thursday at Randy's Up The River in Allegany. Hosted by the Voice of the Bonnies, Gary Nease, the show runs from 7:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and can be heard on 95.7 WPIG.

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program has reached new heights under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt.

Schmidt's blue collar efforts to revive the tradition-rich program resulted in an unprecedented season in 2011-12, as the Bonnies' won their first ever Atlantic 10 championship and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under Schmidt's guidance, St. Bonaventure has become a consistent winner in the Atlantic 10. The team has improved its conference win total in each of the past five seasons, culminating in the magical 2011-12 campaign. The Bonnies went 20-12 (10-6 Atlantic 10) and captured victories over Saint Joseph's, Massachusetts and Xavier to win the Atlantic 10 Championship crown and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history.

SBU's 20 victories overall and 10 in the Atlantic 10 were its most since the 1999-2000 season, the last time a Bonnies team had earned an NCAA Tournament bid. The 10 victories also marked just the fourth time in history a Bonaventure team reached double-digit conference triumphs.

Schmidt was recognized for his remarkable work in rebuilding the Bonnies by being named the 2012 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year. He was also named the Basketball Coaches Association of New York Men's Division I Coach of the Year.

Schmidt was instrumental in the development of 2012 A-10 Player of the Year and AP Honorable Mention All-American Andrew Nicholson, who ended his career ranked second in school history in scoring (2,103 points) and fourth in rebounds (887). Nicholson was selected by the Orlando Magic in the first round of the 2012 NBA Draft.

In May 2012, St. Bonaventure rewarded Schmidt with a five-year contract extension that runs through the 2018-19 season.

Schmidt took over the tradition-rich program on April 10, 2007, becoming the 19th head coach in school history.

In just six short years, Schmidt and the Bonnies have re-energized the Bona faithful and basketball-passionate Western New York community.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Schmidt oversaw a Bonnies squad that posted the school's first winning season (16-15) and postseason berth (CBI) since 2001-02. The Bonnies - picked for second to last in the preseason poll - exceeded expectations and finished tied for seventh in the league standings and earned a home A-10 Championship game for the second straight season.

During his third season in 2009-10, Schmidt guided the Bonnies to their second straight season with 15 wins. St. Bonaventure gained its second consecutive berth in the Atlantic 10 Championship, where the Bonnies defeated Duquesne for the program's first postseason win since 2002.

In 2008-09, St. Bonaventure finished with a 15-15 overall record – the program's best mark in the last six years. Included in that season was a program record seven consecutive road wins to start the season and the program's first trip to the Atlantic 10 Tournament since 2005. The team's seven true road wins also tied the record set by the 2001-02 club.

Key to the quick turnaround in 2008-09 was the team's ability to buy into Schmidt's emphasis on playing hard for 40 minutes. That philosophy paid big dividends, as the Bonnies out-rebounded 22 of their 30 opponents en route to ranking in the top five in the conference in all three major rebounding statistics.

Schmidt's intense personality rubbed off on everyone involved with the program in his first season, as St. Bonaventure was much more competitive in the ultra-talented A-10 Conference. Disguised in the team's 8-22 record were 10 losses by 10 points or less, including four by five points or less.

Bonnies All-Access

Log on to GoBonnies.com to get a never-before seen look at the inner-workings of the St. Bonaventure men's basketball program.

The series will follow every aspect of the 2012-13 men's basketball team as it looks to repeat as Atlantic 10 Champions in Brooklyn this coming March.

Produced and filmed by Bonaventure senior Josh Carniewski with editorial assistance from Sports Information Director Jason MacBain, "All-Access: St. Bonaventure Men's Basketball" is a three-episode video series. Episode 1 – broken into two parts on YouTube – is now available, with episodes 2 and 3 to come following the conclusion of the non-conference schedule and regular season, respectively.

Episode 1 places a heavy emphasis on the team and individual players off-season development following SBU's first A-10 Championship last year.
