ST. BONAVENTURE (7-7, 0-1 A-10) VS. NO. 24 VCU (13-3, 1-0 A-10)

Opening Tip

St. Bonaventure welcomes new Atlantic 10 member VCU to the Reilly Center for the first-ever meeting between the teams as conference opponents. The Bonnies are aiming to snap a four-game losing streak while the Rams are seeking to build on their 10-game winning streak. VCU is ranked No. 24 in the latest USA Today Coaches Poll and is 26th (receiving votes) in the Associated Press Poll. SBU leads the all-time series 2-0 and defeated VCU, 84-76, in the Rams last visit to the Reilly Center during the 1978-79 season. The Bonnies also topped the VCU, 63-61, for the 1978 ECAC championship and automatic NCAA Tournament berth.

Last Time Out

George Washington nearly equaled a season high in points as it handed St. Bonaventure its fourth straight loss with a 78-59 victory over the Bonnies at the Charles E. Smith Center in the conference opener for both teams Wednesday night. Chris Johnson scored a team-high 17 points to lead the Bonnies, senior Demitrius Conger added 11 and classmate Eric Mosley came off the bench to tally 10.

Defense was once again the primary issue for the Brown and White as they allowed their fourth straight opponent to shoot 50 percent or better from the floor as the Colonials connected at a 57-percent clip, including 65 percent in the first half.

George Washington, which came in averaging just 64 points per game, put 26 on the board not even eight minutes against the Bona defense. The Bonnies were able to cut the deficit to eight, 36-28 following a pair of Mosley free throws, but GW was able to maintain a consistent double-figure edge throughout much of the opening stanza as it took a 46-32 lead into the halftime break.

GW put the game out of reach as it opened the second half on a 9-0 run to stretch to its largest lead of the game, 55-32, at the 16:16 mark. From there, the Bonnies could get no closer than 18 points the rest of the way as they dropped their fourth in a row for the first time since the 2009-10 season.

Bonaventure struggled from long range as it shot just 17 percent (3-for-18) from the 3-point line. Meanwhile, GW shot 50 percent (6-for-12) – not an overwhelming total – but the Colonials came into the game averaging just 2.8 3-pointers per game.

Scouting VCU

VCU opened its inaugural Atlantic 10 slate on Wednesday with a 74-62 victory over visiting Dayton. Treveon Graham scored in double-figures for the ninth straight game, leading all scorers with 24 points for VCU. The Rams forced 26 turnovers and gathered 15 steals, nine by sophomore Briante Weber. VCU's three losses have come to Duke, Missouri and Wichita State.

Wreaking 'Havoc'

The Rams play under a style that coach Shaka Smart calls "Havoc", where they employ a relentless defense and free-wheeling offense. Highlighting the havoc, VCU has forced 22 or more turnovers and 14 or more steals in each of the past six games and lead the nation with 13.6 steals per game. Additionally, VCU has forced opponents into 21.7 turnovers per game. Led by Graham's 15.4 scoring average, VCU's nonp-stop offense averages 78.3 points per game, which ranks 28th nationally. Troy Daniels (13.8), Juvonte Reddic (13.6) and Rob Brandenberg (10.6) also average double figures for the Rams. Daniels connected on 11 3-pointers in a recent victory over East Tennessee State and leads the nation with 68 made 3-pointers. As a team, VCU is tied for fourth nationally with 141 made 3-pointers.

The Second Season

Despite not finishing its 2012-13 non-conference slate the way it wanted to, St. Bonaventure is in similar position as it was last year. The Bonnies went 7-5 in the non-league docket last year and were 7-6 this year. In fact, the SBU offense this year was more prolific than last year's through the non-conference schedule (73.5 points per game compared with 67.3), but the defense has not been as stingy (70.3 points compared with 62.1). Last year, Bonaventure started to gel during Atlantic 10 Conference play, playing its best ball at the end of February and into March. That translated into the program's first A-10 Championship title.

Carrying A Heavy Weight

Demitrius Conger has played 470 minutes this year, which is 88 minutes more than anyone else on the Bona roster. The next closest is Chris Johnson, who has logged 382 minutes, and after him is Charlon Kloof at 335 minutes. Nine St. Bonaventure players average double-figure minutes per game, but Conger is on pace for his third straight season of 1,000 or more minutes. He logged a career-high 1,088 as a sophomore and 1,073 last year as a junior.

Closing In On 1,000

Conger enters this afternoon's game 17 points shy of 1,000 for his career. The senior, who is averaging 13.6 points per game and has scored more than 17 in three contests this year, would become the 39th player in SBU history to net 1,000 points. Conger also needs just two assists to reach 200 for his career and can become the third St. Bonaventure player to registered 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 200 assists for his career. The others are David Vanterpool (1991-95) and Ahmad Smith (2002-06).

HEAD COACH MARK SCHMIDT

MARK SCHMIDT RADIO SHOW

Fans are invited to upcoming live broadcasts of the Mark Schmidt Radio Show. Hosted by the Voice of the Bonnies, Gary Nease, the show runs from 7:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and can be heard on 95.7 WPIG. The schedule of upcoming shows is as follows:

Jan. 17 @ Randy's Up the River
Jan. 24 @ SBU Rathskeller
Jan. 31 @ SBU Rathskeller
Feb. 14 @ Bartlett Country Club
Feb. 21 @ Bartlett Country Club
Feb. 28 @ Bartlett Country Club

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program has reached new heights under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt.

Schmidt's blue collar efforts to revive the tradition-rich program resulted in an unprecedented season in 2011-12, as the Bonnies' won their first ever Atlantic 10 championship and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under Schmidt's guidance, St. Bonaventure has become a consistent winner in the Atlantic 10. The team has improved its conference win total in each of the past five seasons, culminating in the magical 2011-12 campaign. The Bonnies went 20-12 (10-6 Atlantic 10) and captured victories over Saint Joseph's, Massachusetts and Xavier to win the Atlantic 10 Championship crown and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history.

SBU's 20 victories overall and 10 in the Atlantic 10 were its most since the 1999-2000 season, the last time a Bonnies team had earned an NCAA Tournament bid. The 10 victories also marked just the fourth time in history a Bonaventure team reached double-digit conference triumphs.

Schmidt was recognized for his remarkable work in rebuilding the Bonnies by being named the 2012 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year. He was also named the Basketball Coaches Association of New York Men's Division I Coach of the Year.

Schmidt was instrumental in the development of 2012 A-10 Player of the Year and AP Honorable Mention All-American Andrew Nicholson, who ended his career ranked second in school history in scoring (2,103 points) and fourth in rebounds (887). Nicholson was selected by the Orlando Magic in the first round of the 2012 NBA Draft.

In May 2012, St. Bonaventure rewarded Schmidt with a five-year contract extension that runs through the 2018-19 season.

Schmidt took over the tradition-rich program on April 10, 2007, becoming the 19th head coach in school history.

In just six short years, Schmidt and the Bonnies have re-energized the Bona faithful and basketball-passionate Western New York community.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Schmidt oversaw a Bonnies squad that posted the school's first winning season (16-15) and postseason berth (CBI) since 2001-02. The Bonnies - picked for second to last in the preseason poll - exceeded expectations and finished tied for seventh in the league standings and earned a home A-10 Championship game for the second straight season.

During his third season in 2009-10, Schmidt guided the Bonnies to their second straight season with 15 wins. St. Bonaventure gained its second consecutive berth in the Atlantic 10 Championship, where the Bonnies defeated Duquesne for the program's first postseason win since 2002.

In 2008-09, St. Bonaventure finished with a 15-15 overall record – the program's best mark in the last six years. Included in that season was a program record seven consecutive road wins to start the season and the program's first trip to the Atlantic 10 Tournament since 2005. The team's seven true road wins also tied the record set by the 2001-02 club.

Key to the quick turnaround in 2008-09 was the team's ability to buy into Schmidt's emphasis on playing hard for 40 minutes. That philosophy paid big dividends, as the Bonnies out-rebounded 22 of their 30 opponents en route to ranking in the top five in the conference in all three major rebounding statistics.

Schmidt's intense personality rubbed off on everyone involved with the program in his first season, as St. Bonaventure was much more competitive in the ultra-talented A-10 Conference. Disguised in the team's 8-22 record were 10 losses by 10 points or less, including four by five points or less.

Bonnies All-Access

Log on to GoBonnies.com to get a never-before seen look at the inner-workings of the St. Bonaventure men's basketball program.

The series will follow every aspect of the 2012-13 men's basketball team as it looks to repeat as Atlantic 10 Champions in Brooklyn this coming March.

Produced and filmed by Bonaventure senior Josh Carniewski with editorial assistance from Sports Information Director Jason MacBain, "All-Access: St. Bonaventure Men's Basketball" is a three-episode video series. Episode 1 – broken into two parts on YouTube – is now available, with episodes 2 and 3 to come following the conclusion of the non-conference schedule and regular season, respectively.

Episode 1 places a heavy emphasis on the team and individual players off-season development following SBU's first A-10 Championship last year.
