NEWS & NOTES

ST. BONAVENTURE (7-8, 0-2 A-10) VS. XAVIER (9-6, 2-0 A-10)

Opening Tip

St. Bonaventure meets Xavier in a nationally-televised "White Out" game at the Reilly Center. The teams last met in the 2012 Atlantic 10 Tournament Championship at Boardwalk Hall in Atlantic City, N.J., with the Bonnies claiming a 67-56 victory and automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. The Musketeers are off to a 2-0 start in conference play this year with victories over Temple and George Washington. The Bonnies, meanwhile, are 0-2 in the A-10 and are aiming to snap a five-game losing streak. The last time SBU lost six games in a row was during the 2007-08 season, coach Mark Schmidt's first with the Bonnies.

Last Time Out

St. Bonaventure battled VCU (14-3, 2-0 A-10) tough the entire afternoon, but the Rams proved too much in their inaugural conference road game against the defending league champions as they pulled out a 72-65 victory Saturday at the Reilly Center.

In the loss, senior Demitrius Conger became the 39th member of the program's 1,000 Point Club as the Brooklyn native hit a late 3-pointer to give him 1,002 career points. Conger finished with a game-high 19 points, and also issued three assists as he joined just two other Bona players in school history with 1,000 career points, 500 career rebounds and 200 career assists.

Junior Matthew Wright, who came off the bench for the first time this year, reached double-figure scoring for the sixth time this season as he had 10 for the Bonnies, a total equaled by senior Chris Johnson, who passed out four assists against turnovers. Wright dished out three assists of his own against no turnovers and knocked down two 3-pointers.

VCU, which led nearly the entire game, shot 59 percent in the second half (13-22) to turn a three-point halftime lead (32-29) into its 11th straight victory, despite tallying its third-lowest 3-point total (5-17) of the year.

Series History

Xavier is 23-16 all-time against St. Bonaventure. The Bonnies' victory in last year's Atlantic 10 Championship snapped an 11-game losing streak to the Musketeers dating back to SBU's 80-79 victory on Feb. 9, 2002 at the Reilly Center. The schools first met on the hardwood in the 1956 National Catholic Invitational Tournament (NCIT), with Xavier claiming a 95-86 victory in Louisville, Ky. The Bonnies have won seven of 12 meetings against the Musketeers that have been played at the Reilly Center. Since 1995, when Xavier joined the A-10, the Musketeers have won 16 of 21 games against SBU.

Scouting Xavier

Xavier snapped its four-game losing streak by defeating Temple, 57-52, in its Atlantic 10 opener and followed that win up with a 71-56 triumph over George Washington on Saturday. Led by 21 points each from guards Brad Redford and Semaj Christon, the Musketeers never trailed against the Colonials, who topped the Bonnies, 78-59, last Wednesday. One of the A-10's top freshman, Christon leads Xavier in scoring (14.1 ppg), assists (4.8, fourth in the A-10) and steals (1.4). Travis Taylor paces the Musketeers in the frontcourt with 11.3 points and 7.8 rebounds per game.

XU Among The Leaders

Redford drained a career-best seven 3-pointers against GW and the senior ranks third in the A-10 in 3-point field goal percentage (47.1 percent, 33-70). Xavier leads the A-10 with a 47.1 field goal percentage as a team and the Musketeers have also outrebounded their last five opponents. Coach Chris Mack's club is especially stout defensively, ranking third in the conference in scoring defense (60.3 ppg), and second in both field goal percentage defense (39.7 percent) and 3-point field goal percentage defense (29.8 percent).

Drastic Improvement

Senior Chris Johnson enters the game just one point shy of surpassing his entire scoring output from last year. The combo guard has scored 197 points through the first 15 games of the season (second on the Bona roster to Demitrius Conger's 210), and tallied 198 all of last year. The Canadian has already knocked down 22 3-pointers (once again second on the Bona roster, this time to Eric Mosley's 36), after hitting just 15 shots from long range all of last year.

'E' For 3

Senior Eric Mosley is unquestionably the Bonnies best shooter from long range as he's knocked down 45 percent of his 3-point attempts this year (36-80). Entering the week, Mosley's 3-point shooting percentage ranked fourth in the A-10. No one else on the Bona roster has more than 22 makes (Johnson).

Uncharacteristic Defense

Prior to its game against George Washington last Wednesday, the Bonnies had allowed their last three opponents to each score 85 or more points for the first time in the Mark Schmidt era (2007-08). That was the first time in more than 20 years that SBU allowed three teams in a row to score 85 or more points. The last time that occurred was during the 1990-91 season as four straight opponents scored 85 or more against the Brown and White.

Musketeer Dominance

The Musketeers have won outright or shared nine A-10 regular season championships since joining the league for the 1995-96 season, including five of the last six seasons. Xavier is also one of only four teams that have made the NCAA Sweet 16 four times in the last five years.

HEAD COACH MARK SCHMIDT

MARK SCHMIDT RADIO SHOW

Fans are invited to upcoming live broadcasts of the Mark Schmidt Radio Show. Hosted by the Voice of the Bonnies, Gary Nease, the show runs from 7:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. and can be heard on 95.7 WPIG. The schedule of upcoming shows is as follows:

Jan. 17 @ Randy's Up the River
Jan. 24 @ SBU Rathskeller
Jan. 31 @ SBU Rathskeller
Feb. 14 @ Bartlett Country Club
Feb. 21 @ Bartlett Country Club
Feb. 28 @ Bartlett Country Club

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program has reached new heights under sixth-year head coach Mark Schmidt.

Schmidt's blue collar efforts to revive the tradition-rich program resulted in an unprecedented season in 2011-12, as the Bonnies' won their first ever Atlantic 10 championship and earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under Schmidt's guidance, St. Bonaventure has become a consistent winner in the Atlantic 10. The team has improved its conference win total in each of the past five seasons, culminating in the magical 2011-12 campaign. The Bonnies went 20-12 (10-6 Atlantic 10) and captured victories over Saint Joseph's, Massachusetts and Xavier to win the Atlantic 10 Championship crown and advance to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history.

SBU's 20 victories overall and 10 in the Atlantic 10 were its most since the 1999-2000 season, the last time a Bonnies team had earned an NCAA Tournament bid. The 10 victories also marked just the fourth time in history a Bonaventure team reached double-digit conference triumphs.

Schmidt was recognized for his remarkable work in rebuilding the Bonnies by being named the 2012 Sporting News Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year. He was also named the Basketball Coaches Association of New York Men's Division I Coach of the Year.

Schmidt was instrumental in the development of 2012 A-10 Player of the Year and AP Honorable Mention All-American Andrew Nicholson, who ended his career ranked second in school history in scoring (2,103 points) and fourth in rebounds (887). Nicholson was selected by the Orlando Magic in the first round of the 2012 NBA Draft.

In May 2012, St. Bonaventure rewarded Schmidt with a five-year contract extension that runs through the 2018-19 season.

Schmidt took over the tradition-rich program on April 10, 2007, becoming the 19th head coach in school history.

In just six short years, Schmidt and the Bonnies have re-energized the Bona faithful and basketball-passionate Western New York community.

During the 2010-11 campaign, Schmidt oversaw a Bonnies squad that posted the school's first winning season (16-15) and postseason berth (CBI) since 2001-02. The Bonnies - picked for second to last in the preseason poll - exceeded expectations and finished tied for seventh in the league standings and earned a home A-10 Championship game for the second straight season.

During his third season in 2009-10, Schmidt guided the Bonnies to their second straight season with 15 wins. St. Bonaventure gained its second consecutive berth in the Atlantic 10 Championship, where the Bonnies defeated Duquesne for the program's first postseason win since 2002.

In 2008-09, St. Bonaventure finished with a 15-15 overall record – the program's best mark in the last six years. Included in that season was a program record seven consecutive road wins to start the season and the program's first trip to the Atlantic 10 Tournament since 2005. The team's seven true road wins also tied the record set by the 2001-02 club.

Key to the quick turnaround in 2008-09 was the team's ability to buy into Schmidt's emphasis on playing hard for 40 minutes. That philosophy paid big dividends, as the Bonnies out-rebounded 22 of their 30 opponents en route to ranking in the top five in the conference in all three major rebounding statistics.

Schmidt's intense personality rubbed off on everyone involved with the program in his first season, as St. Bonaventure was much more competitive in the ultra-talented A-10 Conference. Disguised in the team's 8-22 record were 10 losses by 10 points or less, including four by five points or less.

Bonnies All-Access

Log on to GoBonnies.com to get a never-before seen look at the inner-workings of the St. Bonaventure men's basketball program.

The series will follow every aspect of the 2012-13 men's basketball team as it looks to repeat as Atlantic 10 Champions in Brooklyn this coming March.

Produced and filmed by Bonaventure senior Josh Carniewski with editorial assistance from Sports Information Director Jason MacBain, "All-Access: St. Bonaventure Men's Basketball" is a three-episode video series. Episode 1 – broken into two parts on YouTube – is now available, with episodes 2 and 3 to come following the conclusion of the non-conference schedule and regular season, respectively.

Episode 1 places a heavy emphasis on the team and individual players off-season development following SBU's first A-10 Championship last year.
